

About Frank and Joanne

Frank and Joanne Cunningham have been trusted trichologists for over 25 years, based in Manchester in the UK. With their hair care experience they have created an anti hair loss lotion that really works and that is set to be one of the best hair loss remedies on the market. Hairsense.

This husband and wife team has the whole package for hair care, with half of the practises clients being women, and Joanne specialising in their care, and Frank controlling the research into new products to create and use such as Hairsense.

Getting press quotes and advice

Frank, himself, has been a vice chairman for the Institute of Trichologists, is a member of the law society as an expert witness and has been asked by a number of different house hold names for advice and quotes for the press having appeared in most formats over a 10 year span.
